REAT NATION 1. HOESE FAIR, FOR THE EXUI
Thitm on shores from all parts of the United States. To be held under the auspices of the National Iceley Club, at the National Course, near the city of New York.

This great exhibition will open on Wednesday, the 27th Speember, 1854, and cantinue three days.

It will be a national affair, in the broadest sense of the word, in which the owners and irrectors of horses, from all parts of the Union, are invited to participate. The managers will make every effort in their power to rander this occasion case that this will be the boot exhibition of horses that has ever be in held in this or may other country, and specially deserving the attention of breeders, faimers, orders and all those who are interested in that noble animal, the horse. The National Course, where the fair will be helt, it sertainly the most beautiful and appropriate ground where such an exhibition could take place, as it contains every convenience and facility within itself, for the most perfect display of as hige a number of horses as could possibly be brought together. An inside track has been laid out expressly for the occasion, the most ample accommodations have been mide for all horses that may be entered for competition, and from the magnificent and spacious stands, the speciators will have an uninterrupted view of all that transplie upon the ground.

The classes have been arranged so as to give the widest field for competition, and the list of premiums is the largest that has ever been offered at any fair oxclusively for horses.

All the premiums will be given in sterling silver plate, which has been got up expressly for the fair by William Gale & For, it will be of the full value of the sum stated in the hist of premiums, and consists of useful articles, beautiful in design and of high artition fluids.

The committee of manage eent are anxious to have all the best horses in the Union blong to geniemen who keep them for private use, they therefore m is carnestly ask the co-of horses. They think this
